Shuttle Service City Minivan Switzerland

Each successful conference starts with the approach and return of the participants. Chauffeur Drive picks up your guests and speakers at the airport and take them safely and comfortably to the event and back. Punctual, reliable and discreet. The passenger can take a seat and relax, do some work or make a phone call. We also take care of your transport organisation at your event. We just need the exact arrival and departure times and will work out a tailor made offer for you.
